

Regional Government Services (RGS) is a government agency serving the professional needs of public entities. RGS provides comprehensive communications services. Our team has delivered a broad range of communications solutions for partner cities, counties, special districts and regional planning agencies. Whether it is guidance, planning or implementation, our professionals are equipped to help. Areas of expertise include:

- Crisis communications
- Media strategy and coordination
- Stakeholder engagement
- Tribal consultation
- Community relations
- Presentation development and training
- Meeting facilitation
- Construction/project outreach
- Social media and web development
- Graphic and video production
- Communications planning
- Interim communications staffing and recruitment

RGS has been an integral part of StanCOG's team, specifically for the Valley Vision Stanislaus effort. RGS is truly an extension of our team and we highly recommend the firm and its services.

– Rosa De Leon Park
Executive Director, Stanislaus
Council of Governments

RGS's expertise and knowledge of city government assisted us in developing effective approaches to crisis communications involving litigation, marketing efforts and overall communication strategies that still assist us today.

– Nancy Samuelson
Communications and Marketing
Director, City of Indian Wells