The culture of work has shifted to include new needs and work schedules, introducing new complexities to how organizations function. Managing culture and teams while ensuring productivity requires managers and directors to rethink traditional approaches to these crucial skills. This 90-minute Webinar helps managers and directors initiate necessary changes in teams and culture to ensure success in the new world of mixed hybrid work.

This Webinar will specifically address:

- Managing organizational change in a newly emerging hybrid culture
- Establishing a values-based culture
- Re-evaluating team communication and work product
- Leading through uncertainty

RGS webinars are not typical “sit and listen” workshops. These are live, instructor-led courses, with multiple opportunities for interaction, asking questions, and getting feedback on individual situations. We build a variety of participation methods into our courses.
